MRS. FRENCH HURT IN CRASH OF AUTOMOBILE, FORGIVES ELOPING "JACK" GERAGHTYS

REUNION AT A HOTEL.

Society Leader Meets Son-in-
Law for First Time Since His Marriage, Two Years Ago.

BOSTON, Sept. 1.—Today for the first time since he eloped with Julia French from Newport two years ago, "Happy Jack" Geraghty, chauffeur, has seen his mother-in-law, Mrs. Amos Tuck French, who is lying injured in the Hotel Touraine, as the result of an automobile accident at Milton yesterday. Mrs. Stuyvesant Leroy, mother of Mrs. French, who was in the car, sustained serious injuries, and is also at the hotel.

When the members of the family were summoned from Newport, New York, Providence and elsewhere, word was sent to the Geraghtys in Woburn. This was the first recognition of them as a family. "Happy Jack" and his wife came in by automobile, arriving at the hotel a few hours after the accident.

It is believed the long-delayed reconciliation which not even the coming of the Geraghty baby boy could bring about was accomplished when Mrs. French feared she was seriously hurt. When the baby was born a year ago at Newport, Mrs. French forgave her daughter, but refused to welcome her chauffeur son-in-law. She has seen the child several times since.

The automobile containing Mrs. Leroy, Mrs. French, her youngest son, Francis, his tutor and a maid was coming down from Blue Hill when a spring broke on the front wheel. The engine dropped through the bed and the car, swerving to the right, smashed into a telegraph pole, hurling all the occupants out. They narrowly escaped death.

VANDERBILTS RUSH TO IN-JURED WOMAN'S BEDSIDE.

A passing automobile was used to bring the injured woman back to Boston where a suite was taken in the Hotel Touraine. While local doctors attended the woman, messengers were sent for relatives, particularly as it was thought Mrs. Leroy's injuries were extremely serious.

Word was sent to Stuyvesant Leroy in Newport. He immediately got Dr. Knapp, the family physician, and a nurse, Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, supplied a his for the trip. Mrs. Vanderbilt and her daughter, Cathleen, joined the party which bundled in and made the run to Boston in record time.

Mrs. Leroy and Mrs. French were reported as resting comfortably today. It was stated by attendants that Mrs. Leroy, for whom grave anxiety had been expressed last night, had apparently suffered nothing more serious than a bad shaking up, although the physicians were to make a more thorough examination today to determine the real extent of her injuries. Her daughter, Mrs. French, fared better, the attendants said, and they added that there was no cause for alarm in either case.

Amos Tuck French was notified by telegraph and at last at once from Tuxedo, New York. He is expected today. Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt, sister-in-law of Mrs. Amos Tuck French, is also expected today.

When the Geraghtys were notified, "Happy Jack" brought out a big touring car and made a fast trip from Woburn. His wife entered the hotel first and was admitted upstairs. Geraghty followed after an interval. He would make no statement after the visit.

KILLARNEY, Sept. 1.—The Earl of Killarney's fine seat, Killarney House, Killarney, County Kerry, was destroyed by fire yesterday. It was built thirty years ago at a cost of $1,000,000.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Their morning victory over the Braves gave the Giants an extra bit of confidence for the second game. A crowd of 20,000 saw the teams play. Marquard and Myers were the battery for the Giants and were opposed by the ex-Giant Rudolph and Rariden for the Boston Braves.

When Rube came to the bat, the band played "Here Comes My Daddy Now," as Rube was presented with a little son this morning. Burns lifted a high fly to Mann. Shafer got a base on balls. Fletcher came to the front with a line drive to right for a single, scoring Snodgrass and sending Shafer to third. On an attempted double steal, Shafer was nipped at the plate. Rariden to Maranville to Rariden. One Run. One Left.

FOURTH INNING—Shafer made a pretty stop of Myers's hot bouncer and threw to Merkle, who touched the runner out on the line. Fletcher threw out Lord. Sweeney got a base on balls. Want to Take Rifles and Ammunition Across Texas Border.
EAGLE PASS, Tex., Sept. 1.—For alleged protection of American interests Constitutionalists today requested the United States Government to import 1,000 rifles and several hundred thousand rounds of ammunition into Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass. The request pointed out that the Washington authorities were reported to have authorized such an importation to Juarez for the protection of the Pass.

DAY OF REAL JUBILATION - CELEBRATED BY WORKERS

Spent With Families at Seashore and Other Resorts, and Men at Peace With Employers.

The quietest and most orderly Labor Day parade in many years held possession of Fifth Avenue from Central Park to Washington Square for two hours and a half to-day. The combination of a Saturday half holiday and Sunday intervening before Labor Day, together with the warm weather and clear sky, kept thousands of trades unionists out of the line. They were off in the country or at the seashore, enjoying the holiday with their families.

There were less than 20,000 men in line, although the officers of the parade claimed twice as many. Grand Marshal Holland reviewed the parade at Washington Arch, and the marching hosts passed by him in just one hour and twenty-five minutes. Nearly every band in the parade played the Marseillaise hymn, but this was the most radical feature of the display.

PARADE WHEELS INTO MADISON AVENUE.

Owing to repairs in Fifth Avenue the parade made a detour into Madison Avenue below Forty-second Street.

The American Federation of Labor added 20,000 members in the month and passed the 2,000,000 mark for the first time; strikes have been more successful than ever.

The Labor Day speech of Governor Combs, President of the State, is being made to-day for the first time.
